Trial Scheduled.

A brief luncheon for the next Rothry session next Thursday was decided at the regular meeting Thursday at noon, and the afternoon of Thursday, January 12, will be set aside by the Rotarians to assist the chamber of commerce in its efforts to raine the required $75,000 budget fund. Not only did the Rotarians agree to give the afternoon of the 12th to the work of soliciting, but also whatever service might be required of them during the remainder of the coming week. The appeal for Rotarian assistance was made by R. B. Orndorff, president of the chamber of commerce, who explained the chief things the organization looks forward to accomplishing during the year.

In the absence of J. R. Segali, the sourctary, that post was filled by G. A. Martin, who had to meet the members and their guests. The chairman for the day was rabid Martin Zielonka, who was elevated to that position by courtesy of A. E. Rowlands, the president. Edmund Lachman, of the Western Woodenware company, was formally initiated as a member of the Rotary club, and was quinzed and cross axamined by Edgar W. Kayser, of the First National bank. Upon meeting all of the inquiries and reflections, Mr. Lachman was halled into the ranks.

E. R. Weich, formerly of El Paso has a resident of Mexico City.

of the First National bank. Upon meeting all of the Inquiries and refrections. Mr. Lachman was halled into the ranks.

K. R. Weich, formerly of El Paso and now a resident of Mexico City, was among the visitors, and said that he expected to see Mexico at peace again soon and believed it would be El Paso's greatest asset and that the business men of El Paso could look forward with assurance to a remarkable prosperity growing out of a reconstructed Mexico.

A number of flues were assessed at the luncheon and the fund thus derived was turned over to the walters.

A communication was read from the cancinnati executive committee on the national convention, usung all El Pasoans attending the 1215 convention to make reservations and glan to bring their wives. A second communication was from W. H. Richardson, district meeting on January 12 and 12.

C. R. Perry, the national secretary, sent to the El Paso club a pamphlet containing the standard constitution, now required of all new clubs, with the recommendation that it be adopted by the local club.

The reaignation of R. M. Hoover, superintendent of the El Paso club a pamphlet containing the standard constitution, now required of all new clubs, with the recommendation that it be adopted by the local club.

The guests for the duty were: E. B. Welch, Mexico City, Dr. W. S. Larrabee, Tules, Okla., and C. R. Gray, of Brownsyille.

A feature of the next meeting will be a trial by jury of a member of the sasociation. Edgar W. Kayser is the prosecutor. The judge for this trial is Dr. Martin Zielonica, and the Jury, E. H. Yale, Fred J. Feldman, Charles L. Overstreet, W. R. Winch, R. D. Converse and Dos Rathbun.
